Women's Forum

This is an opportunity for women to come together to socialize, network, and address issues that face women. Women have unique challenges in finding balance in their lives. The Forum is intended to help women examine their own careers and learn from other women about ways to balance jobs and personal lives.

Agenda at a Glance

11:30 am -12 noon	Socialize with colleagues and check out the exhibit tables
12 noon - 1 pm	Luncheon with Paula DeNitto & Ray Rudolph
1:00 pm	Exhibits

TUESDAY, JANUARY 26, 2010

Keynote Speakers

Paula DeNitto, M.D., FACS & Ray Rudolph, M.D., MPH, FACS,
Center for Breast Care, Memorial Health University Medical Center,
Savannah, GA

Dr. Paula DeNitto is a native of Savannah. She completed her undergraduate education at the University of Georgia and earned her medical degree from the Medical College of Georgia. Dr. DeNitto completed her residency in general surgery at Memorial University Medical Center before entering private practice in Savannah. She is board certified in general surgery and is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons.

Dr. Ray Rudolph served in the military and worked as a licensed practical nurse in Vietnam from 1967 to 1968. Several years later, he completed the Physician's Assistant Program at Baylor College of Medicine. Dr. Rudolph then went on to earn both his undergraduate and medical degrees from the University of South Dakota. He did his surgical residency training at Memorial University Medical Center. Dr. Rudolph received his master's degree in public health from Armstrong Atlantic State University in Savannah. He is board certified in general surgery and a fellow of the American College of Surgeons.

A Special Thanks to Magnolia Coastlands AHEC, Statesboro, GA and Memorial Health University Medical Center, Savannah, Ga for their generous support.
